

Please keep a separation among media ownership, especially in a specific region. It is amazing and discouraging to me to see how similar the news reporting is now. There is virtually no room for different views any more which is weakening us as a strong nation.